

Students will read a variety of texts which narrate, describe, explain, argue, persuade and review. The texts will increase in complexity within each paper as well as from Introductory Paper to Paper J, moving from simple texts dealing with familiar subjects and topics to complex texts discussing abstract concepts and using sophisticated language structures.

INTRODUCTORY PAPER

TEXT COMPREHENSION	WRITER'S CRAFT	SYNTAX	VOCABULARY
Questions may require students to: IDENTIFY <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>match a step to an image in a procedure</li> <li>identify the relationship between characters</li> </ul>	IDENTIFY <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>locate rhyming words in a poem</li> <li>identify simple figurative language</li> </ul>	IDENTIFY <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>identify a noun, verb or adjective in a text</li> <li>use the correct tense or agreement</li> </ul>	IDENTIFY <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>find a definition given in the text</li> </ul>
UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>restate a writer's idea</li> <li>give an example of an action to show a character trait</li> </ul>	UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>explain the meaning of simple figurative language</li> </ul>	UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>understand the use of italic font for scientific terms</li> <li>understand a narrative to identify a pronoun referent</li> </ul>	UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>interpret the meaning of a word</li> </ul>
ANALYSE/EVALUATE <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>infer a character's feelings from dialogue</li> <li>compare the features of two objects</li> <li>predict the next event in a narrative</li> </ul>	ANALYSE/EVALUATE Not tested at this level.	ANALYSE/EVALUATE Not tested at this level.	ANALYSE/EVALUATE Not tested at this level.

LEARN MORE

ICAS Paper to Year Level Conversion Table www.eaa.unsw.edu.au/icas/paper-to-year-level-equivalent-table.asp

Students will read a variety of texts which narrate, describe, explain, argue, persuade and review. The texts will increase in complexity within each paper as well as from Introductory Paper to Paper J, moving from simple texts dealing with familiar subjects and topics to complex texts discussing abstract concepts and using sophisticated language structures.

PAPER A

TEXT COMPREHENSION

WRITER'S CRAFT

SYNTAX

VOCABULARY

Questions may require students to:

IDENTIFY

- name the point in a narrative when an event took place
- identify the first, next or last event in a sequence

IDENTIFY

- find a simile in a text
- identify the text type e.g. diary, poem, recipe

IDENTIFY

- identify a correctly punctuated sentence
- identify the full form of a contraction

IDENTIFY

- find a definition given in the text

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- understand a cause-and-effect relationship in a simple process
- state the main purpose of a text

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- explain the effect of beginning a text with a joke or question

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- explain the use of subheadings in a factual text
- join two sentences with a common conjunction

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- interpret the meaning of a word

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

- analyse a scientific text to identify a crucial piece of information
- analyse a text to understand the writer's point of view

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

Not tested at this level.

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

Not tested at this level.

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

Not tested at this level.

LEARN MORE

ICAS Paper to Year Level Conversion Table www.eaa.unsw.edu.au/icas/paper-to-year-level-equivalent-table.asp

Students will read a variety of texts which narrate, describe, explain, argue, persuade and review. The texts will increase in complexity within each paper as well as from Introductory Paper to Paper J, moving from simple texts dealing with familiar subjects and topics to complex texts discussing abstract concepts and using sophisticated language structures.

PAPER B

TEXT COMPREHENSION

Questions may require students to:

IDENTIFY

- find information in a table or diagram
- locate the part of an image that matches a description
- sequence a series of events

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- interpret a character's actions in context
- summarise a writer's argument

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

- make a judgement about a character's decision
- contrast the actions of characters in a narrative

WRITER'S CRAFT

IDENTIFY

- name the device or technique used e.g. simile, personification

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- paraphrase figurative language
- explain the purpose of rhetorical questions in an argument

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

- analyse the features of a text to identify its genre e.g. narrative, scientific

SYNTAX

IDENTIFY

- identify a pronoun referent

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- join two sentences with a conjunction or connective

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

Not tested at this level.

VOCABULARY

IDENTIFY

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- interpret the meaning of a technical word from context

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

Not tested at this level.

LEARN MORE

ICAS Paper to Year Level Conversion Table www.eaa.unsw.edu.au/icas/paper-to-year-level-equivalent-table.asp

Students will read a variety of texts which narrate, describe, explain, argue, persuade and review. The texts will increase in complexity within each paper as well as from Introductory Paper to Paper J, moving from simple texts dealing with familiar subjects and topics to complex texts discussing abstract concepts and using sophisticated language structures.

PAPER C

TEXT COMPREHENSION

Questions may require students to:

IDENTIFY

- state the topic sentence
- identify the cause or effect of an event

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- explain the choice of a particular material/equipment in a procedure
- understand who the audience of a text is

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

- infer a character's mood
- draw conclusions about the outcome of a process or a series of events
- contrast the reviewer(s)'s judgements of two books

WRITER'S CRAFT

IDENTIFY

- name the device or technique used e.g. simile, personification

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- interpret figurative language
- explain the effect of word choice

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

- compare the devices or techniques used in a text

SYNTAX

IDENTIFY

- identify correct use of speech punctuation

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- demonstrate understanding of agreement or tense to select the correct clause

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

Not tested at this level.

VOCABULARY

IDENTIFY

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- provide a synonym for a given word

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

- find two words with the same meaning in the text

LEARN MORE

ICAS Paper to Year Level Conversion Table www.eaa.unsw.edu.au/icas/paper-to-year-level-equivalent-table.asp

Students will read a variety of texts which narrate, describe, explain, argue, persuade and review. The texts will increase in complexity within each paper as well as from Introductory Paper to Paper J, moving from simple texts dealing with familiar subjects and topics to complex texts discussing abstract concepts and using sophisticated language structures.

PAPER D

TEXT COMPREHENSION

WRITER'S CRAFT

SYNTAX

VOCABULARY

Questions may require students to:

IDENTIFY

- restate a writer's opinion
- identify a specific example of a model described in the text

IDENTIFY

- identify the purpose of literary or rhetorical devices such as repetition
- recognise the effect of figurative language in a text

IDENTIFY

- identify correct use of complex punctuation including colons and semicolons

IDENTIFY

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- explain the cause or effect of an event
- use information from a text to label a diagram
- explain the main purpose of a paragraph

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- explain how a character or an opinion is developed
- infer the writer's tone

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- explain the use of punctuation such as brackets or colons

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- explain a word which has several different meanings

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

- infer the reason for a character's decision in a narrative
- evaluate the aspects of a character or text that are humorous
- infer the theme/s of a narrative

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

- infer the reason for including quotations or references to other texts

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

LEARN MORE

ICAS Paper to Year Level Conversion Table www.eaa.unsw.edu.au/icas/paper-to-year-level-equivalent-table.asp

Students will read a variety of texts which narrate, describe, explain, argue, persuade and review. The texts will increase in complexity within each paper as well as from Introductory Paper to Paper J, moving from simple texts dealing with familiar subjects and topics to complex texts discussing abstract concepts and using sophisticated language structures.

PAPER E

TEXT COMPREHENSION

Questions may require students to:

IDENTIFY

- restate a supporting argument

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- summarise the main idea of a complex text
- use information from a diagram or table to support a conclusion
- explain the key on a map

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

- analyse how an argument could be more effective
- infer the central motivation of a character
- generalise from a text the writer's intention/purpose

WRITER'S CRAFT

IDENTIFY

- identify more complex literary and rhetorical devices e.g. allusion

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- interpret a play on words in the title of a text
- explain the use of modality in a text

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

- analyse the effect of a one-sentence paragraph

SYNTAX

IDENTIFY

- replace connectives in the text
- identify types of clauses e.g. adjectival clause, adverbial clause

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- demonstrate grammatical knowledge to identify the correct connective or clause to maintain the meaning of a passage
- understand the use of tense to stage events in a text

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

VOCABULARY

IDENTIFY

- recognise relationships in meaning between words in a text

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- interpret the meaning of idiomatic language
- interpret the meaning of a word in order to provide its antonym

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

LEARN MORE

ICAS Paper to Year Level Conversion Table www.eaa.unsw.edu.au/icas/paper-to-year-level-equivalent-table.asp

Students will read a variety of texts which narrate, describe, explain, argue, persuade and review. The texts will increase in complexity within each paper as well as from Introductory Paper to Paper J, moving from simple texts dealing with familiar subjects and topics to complex texts discussing abstract concepts and using sophisticated language structures.

PAPER F

TEXT COMPREHENSION

Questions may require students to:

IDENTIFY

- identify the setting or an event in a complex poem
- identify a counter-argument

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- provide supporting evidence for an opinion
- explain a character's reaction to an event

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

- compare and contrast points of view in a text
- understand the whole text to identify assumptions
- judge the suitability of alternative titles for a text

WRITER'S CRAFT

IDENTIFY

- identify conventions specific to particular text types e.g. reviews

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- explain the use of historical context in a narrative or an argument

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

- relate the conclusion of a text to the introduction
- evaluate the use of modality in a text
- examine the use of voice and tense in a text to convey meaning

SYNTAX

IDENTIFY

- identify modal adjectives, adverbs or nouns in a text

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- understand the use of hyphenation to join words to build meaning

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

VOCABULARY

IDENTIFY

- match a word with its contextual usage

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- interpret the meaning of a technical word using its base form

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

- analyse the meanings of a group of words to identify the one different in meaning
- extrapolate from the base form other words from the same semantic family

LEARN MORE

ICAS Paper to Year Level Conversion Table www.eaa.unsw.edu.au/icas/paper-to-year-level-equivalent-table.asp

Students will read a variety of texts which narrate, describe, explain, argue, persuade and review. The texts will increase in complexity within each paper as well as from Introductory Paper to Paper J, moving from simple texts dealing with familiar subjects and topics to complex texts discussing abstract concepts and using sophisticated language structures.

PAPER G & H

TEXT COMPREHENSION

Questions may require students to:

IDENTIFY

- identify the correct graphical or diagrammatic representation of information
- identify points of conflict within an argument

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- draw conclusions about the writer's relationship with the narrator
- understand a process to identify its salient aspect or feature

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

- evaluate the writer's relationship with the audience
- interpret multiple meanings of a title
- examine why a title or a name might have changed over time

WRITER'S CRAFT

IDENTIFY

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- explain irony in a text
- explain how layout can affect meaning in a text

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

- relate the conclusion to the introduction
- evaluate the use of modality in a text

SYNTAX

IDENTIFY

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- interpret complex referencing within a text

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

VOCABULARY

IDENTIFY

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- explain the meaning of a word used in a different context
- interpret jargon

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

- Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

LEARN MORE

ICAS Paper to Year Level Conversion Table www.eaa.unsw.edu.au/icas/paper-to-year-level-equivalent-table.asp

Students will read a variety of texts which narrate, describe, explain, argue, persuade and review. The texts will increase in complexity within each paper as well as from Introductory Paper to Paper J, moving from simple texts dealing with familiar subjects and topics to complex texts discussing abstract concepts and using sophisticated language structures.

PAPER I & J

TEXT COMPREHENSION

Questions may require students to:

IDENTIFY

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- explain the nature of relationships in a narrative

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

- synthesise the ideas from a text to make a new analogy or predict a future outcome
- evaluate a text to identify its limitation

WRITER'S CRAFT

IDENTIFY

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

- explain the change in perspective in a text e.g. from first to second person, or from one character to another

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

SYNTAX

IDENTIFY

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

VOCABULARY

IDENTIFY

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

UNDERSTAND/EXPLAIN

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

ANALYSE/EVALUATE

Skills described in the lower papers will be assessed using more complex texts.

LEARN MORE

ICAS Paper to Year Level Conversion Table www.eaa.unsw.edu.au/icas/paper-to-year-level-equivalent-table.asp